

IELTS Course - Seminari professionalizzanti.

Why do the IELTSs preparation course? Whether you want to study in higher educational institutes in Italy or abroad or use English to get a job, or just keep-up your level of English , IELTSs preparation is good choice. You can get a taste of International Certification and improve your use of English at the same time.

This course consists in 60 hours in the lecture room and plenty of guided self-study time. Students who successfully complete the course will be awarded 6 credits (CFUs). The course is split into teaching the 4 language skills of Reading, Writing, Listening and Speaking. The lessons are taught by Dott.ssa Cooper and Dott.ssa Vickery , and in the lecture room the following text is used:

- Cambridge English IELTS Trainer (Six Practice Tests with answers: Academic IELTS) Louise Hashemi and Barbara Thomas €20.90

The course aims to prepare the students in four skills mentioned above from intermediate (from IELTS 5.5/B2 to advanced IELTS 6.5-7/C1) and to familiarize them with exam procedure and time management. Successful students are warmly encouraged to take the IELTSs exam at the end of the course.

Tests are given throughout the ten week course to track students' progress and a final test is held in order to give students a clearer idea of their progress after the 10 week period and their probable result in a real IELTS exam situation.

Students are expected to actively participate in class in all the activities and learn to work in pairs and in teams . They are also expected to produce written work of an academic standard in order to be awarded the final 6 credits. Students can take advantage of individual tutorials with tailored tutoring to help them choose the best study methods and use the best self-study resources on line in order to boost their knowledge.

IELTS™

English for International Opportunity

