

Project TOT City - Tokyo Olympics 2020: Transformations, City and Citizenship in a Case Study

Project n. OG 05-122017

Seminar

Mega-events and urban transformation: a challenge for citizenship and presentation of the book

“Mega events, urban transformations and social citizenship: a multi-disciplinary analysis for an epistemological foresight”

27 May 2022

Dept. of Economics and Business, University of Catania
Palazzo delle Scienze, Corso Italia, 55, Catania, room n. 5

Programme

10.00 – Welcome by Prof. Roberto Cellini, Director of Dept. of Economics and Business, and by Prof. Isidoro Mazza, President of the degree course in Economics and Management of Territory and Tourism, and project overview by Filippo Bignami (SUPSI-LUCI)

10.15–10.45

The legacy of mega-events and the right to the city
Arturo Di Bella (University of Catania)

10.45–11.15

Urban citizenship and mega-events: a multifaceted plot
Filippo Bignami (SUPSI-LUCI)

11.15–11.30 – Participants Q&A

11.30–11.50

Book presentation

11.50–12.00

Final remarks and farewell

The TOT City project is a collaboration between SUPSI (coordinator), University of Tsukuba (TIAS), National University of Singapore and New York University. Project funded through a bilateral Opportunity grant with Asia from ETH-SERI (project n. OG 05-122017).

MEGA EVENTS, URBAN TRANSFORMATIONS AND SOCIAL CITIZENSHIP

Edited by
Filippo Bignami, Niccolò Cuppini
and Naomi Hanakata

